

Absolutely not. Do not allow airplane passengers the option of using their cell phones while airborne. This is nothing more than environmental pollution, disturbing the peace on the airline. Are we to be held hostage, forced to listen to an unlimited number of telephone conversations at varying volume levels while on an airplane? This is monstrous! This is obscene! Please maintain the current ban on cell phone use on airborne aircraft. Thank you.